Direct Speech

There are several rules that need to be followed when quoting direct speech (spoken words).

Explanation	Example
1 Speech Marks	Speech marks are used to indicate direct speech. They enclose the spoken words. "What do you want to do this weekend?" asked Abby.
2 Exact Words	Only use speech marks when quoting the exact spoken words. Indirect speech does not need speech marks. Abby asked us what we wanted to do this weekend. no speech marks needed!
3 Capital Letters	Use a capital letter at the start of direct speech unless the speech is a continuation of an existing sentence. "Stay there!" he shouted. "You can't leave now!" "We are going to France," he said. "But not until March."
4 Punctuation (inside speech marks)	Place any punctuation that belongs to the direct speech inside the speech marks. "When are we having lunch?" asked Abby. "Get out!" shouted the teacher.
5 Punctuation (outside speech marks)	Place any punctuation that does not belong to the direct speech outside the speech marks. Did Arnold really say "I'll be back"?
6 Commas	Use a comma if the text continues after the direct speech. You also need to use a comma when introducing direct speech. "That's an iconic movie quote," said Mike. Beth replied, "Yes, I know."
7 New Paragraphs	Start a new paragraph every time there is a new speaker. "Do you like apples?" asked Will. "I always wonder!" "Yes, why do you ask?" replied Tomoko.
